

PUBLIC ASSISTANCE CONSULTANTS

Hagerty Consulting is a professional services firm providing management consulting services to public sector clients in Washington, D.C and nation-wide. Our employees are highly motivated self-starters and problem-solvers who value the chance to make a difference in the public sector arena. We are currently engaged in a number of challenging emergency management, disaster response, and recovery projects.

We have a need for accountants, Certified Public Accountants, and financial analysts to be part of our cadre of professionals available to provide contract support to the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) Public Assistance (PA) Program following a Presidentially declared disaster. The Public Assistance program is designed to reimburse eligible applicants, including state and local government and qualified non-profits, for the costs to conduct emergency operations and to restore damaged infrastructure.

We are looking for Independent Contractors.

Job Description

The Public Assistance Consultant will provide support to the FEMA PA program following a declared disaster. Specific tasks may include:

- Serve as FEMA's liaison to public and non-profit stakeholders, responsible for explaining to applicants the regulations, policies, and procedures that govern the Public Assistance program.
- Collect, analyze, and summarize financial data and other documentation submitted by applicants.
- Evaluate the eligibility of costs incurred as a result of a disaster for FEMA reimbursement, as defined in the Robert T. Stafford Act and 44 CFR.
- As part of our disaster cadre supporting the PA program, you may be asked to deploy anywhere in the country, often with a week's notice or less, and stay for 90 days or more. Consultants will be reimbursed for travel costs and will receive a per diem for food and lodging.

Qualifications

Bachelors or Masters Degree, preferably in Accounting, Public Policy, Public Administration, Business, Economics, or related field.

Valued experience includes:

- 5+ years of professional experience.
- Understanding of public accounting and budgeting practices.
- Ability to be a productive supporting member of a team.

- Outstanding written and verbal communication skills.
- Must be a U.S. citizen and be able to successfully complete a background and criminal history check.
- Previous experience working with the FEMA Public Assistance Program is helpful, but other qualified candidates will be considered, as well. Candidates without experience will receive training before deploying.

Interested candidates should submit a cover letter and resume to recruitment@hagertyconsulting.com. No phone call please!
